	18-9-2001 : Mr.P.Diwakar for the petitioner. Mr.Deep Kesharwani for the respondents. The main grievance of the petitioner is that though no confidence motion was sought to be moved,the said petition was kept pending at the hands of S.D.M. to whom the direction was given by the Collector for doing the needful. It is stated by Shri Diwakar that once the petition has been submitted seeking no confidence motion to be moved, such petition or request ought to have been dealt-with within time contemplated in the relevant provisions of law and the same can not be kept indefinitely. In the present case it is stated that the learned S.D.M. simply sat over the matter ignoring the direction issued by the Collector. Shri Kesharwani does not dispute the legal proposition in this regard. If that be so this petition should be disposed of today itself. In the result, I direct that the respondents 1 and 2 should act strictly in accordancex with the provisions of law on receipt of any petition seeking to move no confidence motion against respondent no.3 and no
